MEETING AGENDA

August 19, 2008

Code Enforcement Update

Thank you to Travis Mumblo with the City of Charlotte Neighborhood Development Department for speaking about code enforcement issues within the community.

Travis has spent considerable time and has been diligently working to make sure that all the houses within our community are being maintained and are up to code. It doesn't matter if the home is owned by a landlord or a homeowner there are minimal standards that must be met. In several cases the homes were demolished because they were in such poor condition.

If you have any concerns about homes in which you question whether or not they are up to code, call 311 with the address and issue. Travis will gladly check into it and report back to you.

Meeting Minutes – July 15, 2008

Community Updates

- ❖ Bryant Park neighborhood is delayed due to financing. The developer remains committed to the project and will begin construction as soon as funding is available. The apartment portion is still scheduled to start this year.
- ❖ Look for more details regarding a new private pre-school and elementary school coming to our community
- ❖ Thanks to everyone who came out for free hot dogs to celebrate National Night Out on August 2. We had about 25 people attend
- ❖ Wesley Village apartments still on track, working through subdivision approval process. Construction to start by this fall.
- ❖ Charlotte Law School opened this month
- ❖ Code Enforcement Issue:
 - Grass is excessively tall
 - Abandoned vehicles, trash, junk filled yards
 - Visible rotting wood and failing roofs
 - Parking on yards
